The image is a screenshot of the Google Maps interface showing a cycling route. On the left, a blue sidebar contains a menu with the following destinations: Fortescue Bay Camping Ground, Tasmania; Dunalley, Tasmania 7177; Cockle Bay Track, Bream Creek TAS 71...; and Orford Beachside Holiday Park, 77 Tas... Below the menu is an 'OPTIONS' section with a 'Send directions to your phone' button. The main route information shows 'via Arthur Hwy/A9' with a duration of '7 h 48 min' and a distance of '116 km'. A 'DETAILS' link is visible below this information. A small elevation profile graph shows the route's altitude, with a peak of 1,464 m and a low of 1,493 m. The map on the right shows the route in blue, starting at Fortescue Bay Camping Ground and ending at Orford Beachside Holiday Park. Key locations marked on the map include Hobart, Dunalley, Cockle Bay Track, and various coastal towns like Spring Beach and Rhesban. The Google logo is visible in the bottom right corner of the map area.
